

Bill Duggan, Vice President

My St Peter Story:

Bill and his wife, Debbie, have been members of St. Peter for 40 years.

What I bring to St Peter:

Bill has been deeply involved in the life of St. Peter since arriving in 1982. He has served on the Church Council, serving as President during multiple terms.

He also chairs Stewardship and he and Debbie co-chaired Worship and Music for several years.

He also serves on the Finance Committee. Bill has served as an Assistant Liturgical Minister for over 45 years at St. Peter and his previous congregation in Waukesha, Wisconsin. Bill has led/taught Sunday School and Adult Classes, led the Youth Group and has sung and played the guitar for church services. Bill is very involved in many of the Food Ministries that are offered at St. Peter.

He created and has led "Monday Meditation," a time of prayer and meditation, each week in the Sanctuary for approximately 10 years and has been part of a St. Peter book discussion group that has meet weekly for over 30 years.

Bill has also served on the Synod Stewardship Table, as well as served as the Synod Mission Interpreter, which also allowed him to lead training to other Synodical Mission Interpreters through the ELCA, in Michigan, Ohio and Indiana.

He and Debbie have represented St. Peter at the Synod Assembly on multiple occasions and in 2004 was elected as the Synod Delegate for the ELCA Church Wide Assembly in Orlando Florida in August of 2005. He has described his attendance at the Assembly as a life changing experience.

Career:

Bill retired from Kellogg Company in 2012 after 30 years of service.

Hobby/Interest:

Bill is an avid photographer and loves biking, both mountain and road and is an avid reader. He and Debbie also love to play golf. They live in Battle Creek and have two daughters and five grandchildren.
