SPEK SPEAKS SPEK wants to remind us that the holiday season is a good time to be mindful of recycling. Let me just share some reminders. All of these are free.

1. You can recycle styrofoam at St. Peter.
2. Staples has a small box that you can pick up at the store for recycling batteries.
3. Light bulbs of all types can be recycled at the front counter at Menards.
4. Of course, plastic bags of several types can be recycled at Meijer and Walmart.
5. If you separate the plastic shopping bags from Walmart, Horrocks, and Meijer they can be left at St. Peter to be used by the Lakeview Pantry.

Thanks for being a good steward for the creation. If you have any questions/comments, please contact Linn Kracht.
